Casino operators see strong performance of Spintec Karma Electronic Sic Bo/Craps

Macau, Monday, Jan 20, 2020— Place your bets and roll your dices! That’s all you need for an exciting play of Spintec Karma GEN2 Sic Bo/Craps. It is the only ETG got approved by DICJ and went live in Macau market to integrate these two games by rolling the same dices. It allows players to freely switch the games which adds to the overall excitement on the casino floor.

Five automated eight-seated Karma GEN2 Sic Bo/Craps cabinets are now available in Macau. The latest one with multigame function was installed and went live at Studio City. Moreover, the two enable multi-game function and the one enables single Craps function were recently installed at the largest single structure hotel building in Asia on the Cotai Strip. Another one enables single Craps function has already gone live earlier at a casino operated by an American resorts group.

“The machines’ performance is stimulating that the return is much higher than the operators expected. We keep eye on the performance and look forward to more orders from other operators.”, said Assistant General Manager of Sales and Marketing, Vicky Chan, Asia Pioneer Entertainment Holdings Limited.

As a part of the new ETG area in Studio City Macau, Karma GEN2 Sic Bo/ Craps is customized for its prestigious atmosphere. The extra-large screen is surrounded by cutting-edge LED lights with softly padded armrests in specified colour.
